

Mrs. Rosa Drayton immigrated to the U. S. in her early 20's and served four years in the U.S. Navy. While in Panama, she attended Panama University. The knowledge she gained through her studies, as well as her time in the navy, landed her the job of project secretary for a Department of Defense contractor in Washington, D.C. During her tenure in the defense Industry, she became a certified payroll specialist. She later studied business management to further her education. Rosa is fluent in both Spanish and English and uses her knowledge of languages to help where she can. Currently, Rosa serves her church and community in various roles in her community, as well as internationally. Rosa has enjoyed life in Augusta, Georgia for 28 years, alongside her husband and four daughters. In her free time, she enjoys reading, water aerobics and connecting with friends back in Panama! She loves serving her community and being with family and friends.