

Mrs. Helen G. Harris was employed for over 29 years with the federal government, mostly in the Department of Medicine and the Department of Mental Health. Studying the Bible, sewing, reading, traveling, working with the Royal Bees Girls Club, spending time on the computer, and following sports are the things she enjoys most. Her interests include working with and helping others, whether at church or in the community. She is married and has two daughters and five grandchildren.