

Mrs. Yvonne Robinson is a professional Registered Nurse at Dwight D. Eisenhower Army Medical Center and works as a Behavioral Health Care Facilitator Nurse. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Armstrong State University in Savannah, Georgia. She has 34 years of nursing experience in various fields such as pediatrics, ambulatory surgery, home health, medical-surgical, nursing home, and psychiatric. She is a charging nurse in the medicine/surgical unit and has been a Certified Medical-Surgical Registered Nurse (CMSRN) for 10 years. She received various awards over the years, including Employee of the Quarter,

Key 100 Award, Employee of the Year, and the Nursing Excellence Award. She is the co-chairman for the Beulah Readers Book Club and loves to read fiction, non-fiction, and mystery books. She also serves in the children's ministry at her church. In her spare time, she likes to do bargain shopping, sight-seeing, reading, doing word search puzzles, watching television and hanging out with friends. She is married and has three children and three grandchildren. Mrs. Robinson believes that family and friends are like unique treasures that cannot be replaced. Over the years, she has stored memories of those unique treasures. She sees herself as a caring and compassionate person whose business is about helping others.