

Mrs. Victoria Rogers is a graduate of Benedict College in Columbia South Carolina. She is a retired educator, having served elementary school children for over 30 years. Over those years, she demonstrated a passion for working with young children and making them happy and successful. She loves solving crossword puzzles, reading, and traveling. She works in various church ministries where she spends time reaching out when needed and where needed. Vickie has worked years coordinating academic competitions in her church. She is married and has three children.